336TH JUDICAL DISTRICT COURT

STATE OF TEXAS

LAURINE J. BLAKE, JUDGE

Standing Order regarding Juvenile Cases

02-2023

ORDER ASSIGNING

FANNIN COUNTY COURT AT LAW JUDGE CHARLES BUTLER

TO ASSIST IN JUVENILE COURT CASES IN THE 336TH DISTRICT COURT

In an effort to increase court time for the handling and administration of juvenile court cases, County Court at Law Judge Charles Butler is hereby assigned to preside over Juvenile matters for the 336th District Court.

Matters to be heard by Judge Butler will include, but not limited to juvenile detention hearings, compliance with conditions of release and or conditions of probation, adjudication hearings, pretrial and jury trial hearings and related matters.

The District Court will continue to appoint counsel on all juvenile matters, make determinations as to attorneys who serve on the Juvenile Appointment Wheel, payment of attorney fee vouchers related to juvenile matters and other such matters as they arise. Nothing in this Order impacts the District Court's ability to concurrently participate in the handling and resolution of juvenile matters.

This Order is effective immediately and will be effective through December 31, 2023, or until further order of this court.

Signed this 8th day of February 2023.
