STANDING ORDER REGARDING CHILDREN, PROPERTY, AND CONDUCT OF PARTIES IN FAMILY LAW CASES FILED IN UPSHUR & MARION COUNTIES, TEXAS

No party to this lawsuit has requested this order. Rather this order is a standing order of Upshur and Marion County District Court that applies in every divorce suit and every suit affecting the parent-child relationship filed in Upshur and Marion County. The District Court of Upshur and Marion County has adopted this order because the parties and their children should be protected and their property preserved while the lawsuit is pending before the court. Therefore, IT IS ORDERED:

NO DISRUPTION OF CHILDREN: Both parties are ORDERED to refrain from doing the following acts concerning any children who are subjects of this case:

1.1 Removing the children from the State of Texas, acting directly or in concert with others, without the written agreement of both parties or an order of this Court.

1.2 Disrupting or withdrawing the children from school or day-care facility where the children are presently enrolled, without the written agreement of both parties or an order of this Court.

1.3 Hiding or secreting the children from the other parent or changing the children's current place of abode without the written agreement of both parents or an order of this Court.

1.4 Disturbing the peace of the children.

CONDUCT OF THE PARTIES DURING THE CASE: Both parties are ORDERED to refrain from doing the following acts:

2.1 Using vulgar, profane, obscene, or indecent language, or using language in a coarse or offensive manner, to communicate with or about the other party, whether in person, directly or indirectly, by telephone, texting, e-mail, or other form of written or electronic communication, including use of social media, such as, but not limited to Facebook, Myspace or any other form of social media.

2.2 Threatening the other party to take unlawful action against any person, whether in person, directly or indirectly, by telephone, texting, e-mail, or other form of written or electronic communication, including use of social media, such as, but not limited to Facebook, Myspace, or any other form of social media.

2.3 Placing or originating in person, anonymously or otherwise, one or more telephone calls, text messages, e-mails, or other electronic communications at an unreasonable hour in an offensive or repetitious manner without a legitimate purpose of communication.

2.4 Opening or diverting mail, including electronic mail, addressed to the other party.

PRESERVATION OF PROPERTY AND USE OF FUNDS DURING DIVORCE: If this is a divorce case, both parties are ORDERED to refrain from doing the following acts:

3.1 Destroying, removing, concealing, encumbering, transferring, or otherwise harming or reducing the value of the property of one or both of the parties. Misrepresenting or refusing to disclose to the other party or to the Court, on proper request, the existence, amount, or location of any property of one or both of the parties.

3.2 Damaging or destroying the tangible property of one or both of the parties, including any documents, including electronically stored information, that represents or embodies anything of value.

3.3 Tampering with the tangible property of one or both of the parties, including any document, including electronically stored information, that represents or embodies anything of value, and causing pecuniary loss to the other party.

3.4 Selling, transferring, assigning, mortgaging, encumbering, or in any other manner alienating any of the property of either party, whether personal property or real estate property, and whether separate or community, except as specifically authorized by this order.

3.5 Incurring any indebtedness, other than legal expenses in connection with this suit, except as specifically authorized by this order.

3.6 Making withdrawals from any checking or savings account in any financial institution for any purpose, except as specifically authorized by this order.

3.7 Spending any sum of cash in either party's possession or subject to either party's control for any purpose, except as specifically authorized by this order.

3.8 Withdrawing or borrowing in any manner for any purpose from any retirement, profit-sharing, pension, death, or other employee benefit plan or employee savings plan or from any individual retirement account or Keogh account, except as specifically authorized by this order.

3.9 Signing or endorsing the other party's name on any negotiable instrument check or draft, such as tax refunds, insurance payments, and dividends, or attempting to negotiate any negotiable instrument payable to the other party without the personal signature of the other party.

3.10 Taking any action to terminate or limit credit or charge cards in the name of the other party.

3.11 Entering, operating, or exercising control over the motor vehicle in the possession of the other party.

3.12 Discontinuing or reducing the withholding for federal income taxes on wages or salary while this suit is pending.

3.13 Terminating or in any manner affecting the service of water, electricity, gas, telephone, cable or satellite television, internet service or other contractual services, such as security, pest control, landscaping, or yard maintenance at any residence occupied by either party, in the absence of a written agreement or further order of the Court, or in any manner attempting to withdraw any deposits for service in connection with such services.

PARTIES TO FURNISH INFORMATION: If children are involved in this case, or child support is an issue, the parties shall (pursuant to 154.063 of the Texas Family Code):

4.1 Furnish information sufficient to accurately identify the party's net resources and ability to pay child support; and

4.2 Produce copies of income tax returns for the past two years, a financial statement, and current pay stubs.

PERSONAL AND BUSINESS RECORDS IN DIVORCE CASE: If this is a divorce case, both parties in the marriage are ORDERED to refrain from doing the following acts:

5.1 Concealing or destroying any family records, property records, financial records, business records, or any records of income, debts, or other obligations.

5.2 Falsifying any writing or record relating to the property of either party.

5.3 "Records" include email or other digital or electronic data, whether stored on a computer hard drive, diskette, or other electronic storage device.

INSURANCE IN DIVORCE CASE: If this is a divorce case, both parties to the marriage are ORDERED to refrain from doing the following acts:

6.1 Withdrawing or borrowing in any manner all or any part of the cash surrender value of life insurance policies on the life of either party, except as specifically authorized by this order.

6.2 Changing or in any manner altering the beneficiary designation on any life insurance on the life of either party or the parties' children.

6.3 Canceling, altering, or in any manner affecting any casualty, automobile, or health insurance policies insuring the parties' property or persons including the parties' minor children.

SPECIFIC AUTHORIZATION IN DIVORCE CASE: If this is a divorce case, both parties to the marriage are specifically authorized to do the following:

7.1 To engage in acts reasonable and necessary to the conduct of that party's usual business and occupation.

7.2 To make expenditures and incur indebtedness for reasonable attorney's fees and expense in connection with this suit.

7.3 To make expenditures and incur indebtedness for reasonable and necessary living expenses for food, clothing, shelter, transportation, and medical care.

7.4 To make withdrawals from accounts in financial institutions only for purpose authorized by this order.

SERVICE AND APPLICATION OF THIS ORDER:

8.1 The Petitioner shall attach a copy of this Order to the Original Petition and to each copy of the Petition.

8.2 This order is effective upon the filing of the Original Petition and shall remain in full force and effect as a Temporary Order. Except to the extent modified, reformed or vacated by subsequent order, this standing order shall continue in full force and effect as a temporary injunction until further order of the court. This entire order will be terminated and will no longer be effective once the court signs a final order or decree.

EFFECT OF OTHER COURT ORDERS: If any part of this order is different from any part of a protective order that has already been entered or is later entered, the protective order provisions prevail. Any part of this order not changed by some later order remains in full force and effect until the court signs a final order or decree.

PARTIES ENCOURAGED TO MEDIATE: The parties are encouraged to settle their dispute amicably without court intervention. The parties are encouraged to use alternative, dispute resolution methods, such as mediation, to resolve the conflicts that may arise in this lawsuit.

THIS STANDING ORDER REGARDING CHILDREN, PROPERTY, AND CONDUCT OF THE PARTIES SHALL BECOME EFFECTIVE IN ALL FAMILY LAW CASES FILED IN THE 115TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN UPSHUR AND MARION COUNTIES ON JANUARY 13, 2012 AND SHALL REMAIN IN EFFECT THEREAFTER UNTIL FURTHER ORDER OF THE 115TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT. A FILE MARKED COPY OF THIS ORDER ATTACHED TO A PETITION IS AS EFFECTIVE AS THIS ORIGINAL SIGNED ORDER.
