ORDER TO THE FANNIN COUNTY DISTRICT CLERK REGARDING THE FILING OF FAMILY LAW CASES

The 81st Legislature created the Fannin County Court at Law effective September 1, 2009 establishing among other powers and duties, jurisdiction to preside over family law cases. The Fannin County Commissioner's Court appointed the first judge of Fannin County Court at Law Joe D. Moss effective June 7, 2010. This order shall address the manner in which family law cases shall be assigned between the courts in Fannin County with jurisdiction over family law cases.

The Fannin County District Clerk shall be the proper office to receive all filings of family law matters as set forth by the legislature. Effective June 7, 2010, 336th District Court Judge Laurine J. Blake and County Court at Law Judge Joe D. Moss ordered the Fannin County District Clerk to assign all filings of family law matters exclusively in the 336th District Court until further order from the courts with jurisdiction over the same.

It is hereby so ordered.

Signed this 24th day of September, 2010.

Laurine J. Blake, Presiding Judge
336th District Court

Judge Joe D. Moss
Fannin County Court at Law
