Administrative Order 2008-2
Relating to the transfer of cases from the 6th District Court to the 336th District Court, Fannin County, Texas

2008 OCT -6 PM 1:52

In the 6th and 336th Judicial

District Courts of

Fannin County, Texas

The 80th Legislative Session of the Texas Legislature provided the 336th District Court become a full time district court for Fannin County by shifting the judicial districts of the 6th District and the 336th District Courts and whereby cases may be transferred between these two courts beginning September 15th, 2008 and shall be finally transferred to the 336th District Court by January 1, 2010. Pursuant to the authority of VTCA Government Code Sections 74.091, 24.542, and 24.482.

Therefore, it is hereby ordered that all cases currently pending in the 6th Judicial District Court of Fannin County are transferred to the 336th Judicial District Court of Fannin County and all future filings requiring district court jurisdiction by filed in the 336th District Court.

The Fannin County District Clerk is hereby ordered to take such measures as are necessary to transfer and docket all 6th district court cases to the 336th district court.

Effective this 6th day of October, 2008. It is so ordered.

Jim Lovett, 6th District Court Judge

10-6-8

Laurine J. Blake, 336th District Court Judge
