Judge Blake:

I know you are busy and if you have already written an order, please just disregard. If not, I have retyped and revised the Grayson County Order and went ahead and made a copy for Fannin County, if you want to use it. I have enclosed a SASE for convenience in mailing the signed order back to me.

Thanks for all you do.

ORDER

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED BY THIS COURT that all parties to this suit affecting the parent-child relationship are required to successfully complete a court-approved seminar that addresses the issues confronting children that are the subject of divorce, custody, and support litigation. Each party is responsible for and ordered to make payment of the appropriate fee. Information concerning the seminar the subject of this order is attached hereto and incorporated herein as EXHIBIT "A."

The parties are ordered to successfully complete said seminar within sixty (60) days of either (a) the filing of the petition or motion to modify or (b) the receipt of notice of the petition or motion, whichever comes first, or prior to any hearing on temporary orders.

Failure to comply with this order may result in court action including contempt, striking of any pleadings, or any of the sanctions listed in Rule 215 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

For good cause shown, the Court may waive the requirement of the seminar. This order does not apply to any party or parties to this suit who have heretofore successfully completed and received a certificate of completion for said seminar.
