STANDING ORDER REGARDING CERTAIN DISCOVERY MATTERS

Effective immediately and until further order, this Court ORDERS that in all cases pending in this Court, the attorneys representing the state are authorized to release the following records to defense counsel without first filing a motion to release: (1) medical records, (2) grand-jury records, (3) Texas Department of Family and Protective Services records, (4) criminal histories, and (5) juvenile records. The attorneys representing the state may withhold these categories of evidence if the Court conducts a formal hearing on the discovery dispute.

This Court further ORDERS that in all cases pending in this Court, defense counsel shall not (1) disclose documents that contain protected information to any other person or entity or (2) use or disclose records that contain protected information for any purpose other than for litigation and proceedings connected to the case. Once the case is finally disposed of, defense counsel shall return or destroy the documents disclosed under this standing administrative order.

Signed August 23, 2023.

Honorable Ryan Hill
371st Judicial District Court
