Administrative Order Authorizing Inspection of Records of Mental Health Cases

On this day, Judge Guy Herman of the Travis County Statutory Probate Court hereby authorizes Kirby Hernandez, Carolyn Williams, Deborah Mendez, and Mark Erwin to access the confidential mental health records that are held and managed by the Travis County Clerk's office for the limited purpose of resolving the issue of the Civil District Courts having electronic access to confidential mental health records maintained by the Travis County Clerk.

The Court finds that the access of the records is justified and in the public interest in order to prevent the Civil District Court Judges and their staff attorneys from having access to the confidential mental health records of the Travis County Clerk's office.

Signed this 27th day of April, 2023.

The Honorable Guy Herman
