DL ADDRESS RO

STANDING JUDICIAL ORDER

TO DISMISS CITATIONS FOR FAILURE TO CHANGE ADDRESS ON DRIVER'S LICENSE WHERE THE POLICE OFFICER ISSUING THE CITATION HAS PROVIDED DEFENDANT WITH A REPAIR OPTION AND DEFENDANT HAS CORRECTED ADDRESS ON LICENSE WITHIN 10 DAYS OF THE CITATION DATE

ON THIS the 26th day of June, 2001, this Court reviewed the State's Standing Motion filed June 19, 2001, wherein the State moves to dismiss all citations for failure to change address on driver's license where the police officer issuing the citation has provided the defendant with a repair option and defendant has corrected address on license within 10 days of the citation date.

This Court now enters this Standing Judicial Order and ORDERS, in accordance with the State's Standing Motion, a copy attached hereto, that in all cases in which a defendant has received a repair option on a citation for failure to change address on driver's license, and appears within 10 days of the citation date and presents documentation showing the defendant has corrected the address on the license, the case is dismissed. The Clerk of the Municipal Court for the City of Plano is authorized to dismiss all citations meeting this described criteria.

It will not be necessary for the Court Clerk to send these case jackets to the Judge's office for review and entry of judgments if a Court Clerk Supervisor or the Court Administrator verifies that the cases have been properly processed. These cases shall be treated as completed cases.

This Order is effective on and from the 26th day of June, 2001, and supercedes any and all conflicting provisions of previously issued standing orders.

SIGNED AND ENTERED on this the 26th day of June, 2001.
