

IN THE DISTRICT COURTS OF TARRANT COUNTY

Miscellaneous Order No. 1985

ORDER PROVIDING FOR RANDOM FILING OF DELINQUENT TAX CASES AMONG THE TEN CIVIL DISTRICT COURTS

WHEREAS, the district court judges of the 17th, 48th, 67th, 96th, 141st, 153rd, 236th, 342nd, 348th and 352nd ("the civil district courts") have conferred and determined, and are in agreement that all future delinquent tax cases which are filed in the District Courts of Tarrant County should be randomly assigned and distributed among the aforesaid civil district courts,

OKR
THEREFORE, it is HEREBY ORDERED that:

Effective April 1, 2013, the District Clerk of Tarrant County shall file and assign all delinquent tax cases which are filed in the District Courts of Tarrant County by random selection in the civil district courts.

A transition committee, comprised of judges from the civil district courts and the District Clerk, shall be constituted immediately to confer with and make recommendations to the District Clerk concerning what docketing control and other administrative procedures will best implement this Order without unnecessarily decreasing the current effectiveness and efficiency in administering these cases.

SIGNED and ENTERED on this the 16 day of January, 2013.

Tom Lowe
Tarrant County Local Administrative Judge
