IN THE 81ST & 218TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

COURTS

ATASCOSA COUNTY, TEXAS

STANDING ORDER REGARDING TRANSFER BETWEEN THE 81ST & 218TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURTS

Pursuant to Section 24.003(a) and (b)(1) of the Texas Government Code, the undersigned Judge of the aforementioned District Courts hereby acknowledges, consents to and accepts the transfer to its docket of the above styled and numbered cause from the docket of one of the other District Courts, this NOT being a case governed by Chapter 155 of the Texas Family Code.

Pursuant to Section 24.003(b)(2)- (3), (c) and (d), any of the District Judges may, without limitation, hear and determine any proceeding pending in this cause without having the case otherwise transferred by and/or through a temporary exchange of benches with the judge of another District Court of the County.

Any District Judge serving the County may hear and determine motions, including motions for new trial, petitions for injunction, applications for the appointment of a receiver, interventions, pleas in abatement, dilatory pleas, and all preliminary matters, questions, and proceedings, and may enter judgment or order on thereupon without otherwise transferring the case or proceeding. The district judge in whose court the matter is pending may proceed to hear, complete, and determine the matter, or all or any part of another matter, and render a final judgment. Further any District Judge serving the County may issue a restraining order or injunction that is returnable to any other District Court of the County.

Pursuant to Section 24.003(e), a judgment or order shall be entered in the minutes of the District Court in which the case is pending. If the District Judge completes the matter, the matter shall be transferred to the Court completing the matter pursuant to Texas Government Code 72.083. The Atascosa County Court at Law Judge sits by assignment on various District Court matters and those matters completed shall be entered in the minutes of the District Court in which the case is pending.

SIGNED on December 10th, 2024.
