DEFENDANTS WITH A CDL DO NOT QUALIFY FOR, AND MAY NOT TAKE, DEFERRED DISPOSITION FOR A MOVING TRAFFIC VIOLATION. ANY JUDGMENT PROCESSED IN ERROR WILL BE RESCINDED AND THE DEFENDANT NOTIFIED OF A NEW COURT DATE.

A. ELIGIBILITY

The court clerks may process a request for deferred disposition for a moving traffic violation, upon a plea of guilty or no contest, provided:

- The offense did not involve an accident or injury to a human;
- The defendant was not speeding more than 30 MPH over the posted speed limit.

The following offenses are eligible for deferred disposition:

- Speeding;
- Speeding in a School Zone;
- License Violations – No DL, Expired DL, Fail to Display DL, Violate DL Restriction; and
- Failure to Maintain Financial Responsibility if the defendant now has proof of financial responsibility.

B. PROCESSING A REQUEST FOR DEFERRED DISPOSITION AT THE CLERK'S WINDOW

The following requirements apply to processing a deferred disposition at the clerk's window:

1. General provisions: The court clerk may process a request for a deferred disposition at the clerk's window if the defendant:

- Requests deferred disposition while the case is in an approved status (i.e., not in warrant);
- Tenders full payment of the special expense fee at the time of request;

- Signs an application for deferred disposition and provides a current mailing address;
- Provides valid proof of a policy of financial responsibility naming the defendant as a covered driver if the deferred disposition is for the offense of Fail to Maintain Financial Responsibility; and
- Does not hold, and did not hold at the time of the offense, a commercial driver's license or permit if the offense is classified by state law or city ordinance as a violation involving motor vehicle operation or control.

2. Length of deferral period, cost, and conditions are as follows:

- Insurance: 180 days deferred; $315.00 fine; and must maintain insurance in their name or that of the listed driver for 180 day deferral period with no lapses in coverage.

3. Affidavit of Compliance: The court may take an affidavit of compliance and dismiss no more than 30 days later than the compliance date.

OTHER REQUESTS FOR DEFERRED DISPOSITIONS SHOULD BE SET FOR A PRETRIAL CONFERENCE.

C. PROOF OF COMPLIANCE

The following requirements apply to proof of compliance with the terms of deferred disposition:

1. General procedure. The court clerk may accept proof of compliance with the terms of deferred disposition at the clerk's window or by mail. After the court clerk receives proof of compliance, the court clerk will make appropriate comments in the computer system and send the case to the Judge's queue for dismissal. The court shall dismiss the case if the defendant has complied with all conditions as ordered by the Court.
2. Driving safety course (DSC) and similar requirements. If a driving safety course, community service, or other similar condition is required by the court as a condition of the deferred disposition, completion of such requirements on a date or dates outside the deferral period will not automatically be accepted for compliance, and defendant must see the Judge, if available. The following documents must be submitted for compliance:
 - A certificate indicating timely completion of the driving safety course must be signed by the defendant, contain an indication that it is the "COURT COPY," and have no alterations, modifications and/or erasures; and
 - A driving record certified by the Texas Department of Public Safety, which was issued after the offense date, indicating the defendant's license status is eligible, and does not show that a driving safety course has been completed for the purpose of dismissing a moving violation within the twelve (12) months preceding the date of the current citation.
3. Defendant to appear if documents insufficient. If a defendant appears in person and presents documents that are insufficient for dismissal, the court clerk shall send the defendant to see the Judge, if available. If the documents are provided by mail or download, the court clerk shall file the documents and send the case to the Judge's queue.
4. Dismissal of case upon compliance. If the court clerk receives sufficient proof of completion of the DSC, the court clerk will make appropriate comments in the computer system and present the case to the Judge for dismissal. The court shall dismiss the case if the defendant has complied with all conditions as ordered by the court.
5. Show cause hearing. If the defendant fails to provide evidence of successful completion of the DSC within the time period allowed, the defendant must appear at the show cause hearing and show why such evidence was not timely submitted. If the defendant fails to appear, the case shall be sent to the Judge's queue for judgment.
