CLERK
HAYS COUNTY, TEXAS

In the County Court at Law No. 1 of Hays County, Texas

STANDING ORDER REGARDING URINALYSIS UPON THE FILING OF A MOTION TO REVOKE OR MOTION TO ADJUDICATE

Pursuant to the inherent powers of the Court to ensure the fair and efficient administration of justice, and in recognition of the need to balance the use of court resources with individualized determinations related to substance use, the following Standing Order shall apply to all criminal cases filed in the Hays County Courts at Law in which a Motion to Revoke Probation or Motion to Adjudicate Guilt is filed after the effective date of this Order.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. Upon the filing of a Motion to Revoke Probation or Motion to Adjudicate Guilt, a defendant shall not be automatically required to submit to a urinalysis (UA) on the day of the setting for such motions unless one or more of the following applies:

- a) The underlying offense for which the defendant is on supervision is drug-related or driving while intoxicated (DWI) in nature; or
- b) The basis for the Motion to Revoke or Motion to Adjudicate includes an allegation or suspicion of the use or possession of alcohol or controlled substances.
- c) The Court determines that a UA is appropriate.

2. If a UA is required under the criteria above, the defendant shall submit to such testing within the timeframe established by the supervising authority or as otherwise ordered by the Court.

3. This Order shall remain in effect unless specifically modified by the Court in an individual case for good cause shown.

THIS HAYS COUNTY STANDING ORDER REGARDING URINALYSIS UPON THE FILING OF A MOTION TO REVOKE OR MOTION TO ADJUDICATE SHALL BECOME EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY UPON PUBLICATION ON THE OFFICE OF COURT ADMINISTRATION'S WEBSITE.
