

SEVENTH AMENDED MCLENNAN COUNTY STANDING ORDER REGARDING CHILDREN, PROPERTY AND CONDUCT OF THE PARTIES

NO PARTY TO THIS LAWSUIT HAS REQUESTED THIS ORDER. Rather, this order is a Standing Order of the McLennan County District Courts that applies in every divorce suit and every suit affecting the parent-child relationship filed in McLennan County, except cases initiated by the Attorney General of Texas or Child Protective Services. This entire order will terminate and will no longer be effective once the Court signs a final order.

9. EFFECT OF OTHER COURT ORDERS. If any part of this order is different from any part of a protective order that has already been entered or is later entered, the protective order provisions prevail. Any part of this order not changed by some later order remains in full force and effect until the Court signs a final decree.

10. MEDIATION.

10.1 In cases brought under the Family Code, mediation is required before all final orders hearings lasting two (2) hours or longer. Failure to mediate may not be used as an excuse to avoid a final orders hearing. Exceptions may be made in certain cases. Parties seeking an exception must file a verified motion with a certificate of conference. Failure to mediate before trial may result in imposition of sanctions, as permitted by law.

10.2 In all other civil cases, the parties are encouraged to settle their disputes amicably without Court intervention. The parties are encouraged to use alternative dispute resolution methods, such as mediation, to resolve the conflicts that may arise in this lawsuit.

This McLennan County Standing Order Regarding Children, Property and Conduct of the Parties shall become effective on the 1st day of June 2026.
