

IN THE 451ST & 498TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

OF

KENDALL COUNTY, TEXAS

STANDING ORDER REGARDING CASH BONDS OR PAYMENTS

On this 4th day of August, 2026, the Court makes the following Standing Order regarding cash bonds paid in cases involving Respondents and the Attorney General's Office under Texas Family Code Chapter 157.

The Court finds that in Title IV-D cases involving the Attorney General's office as cash bond may be ordered for a Respondent's failure to appear as ordered by the Court. The Court Finds that the cash bond was set based upon an allegation or finding by the Court of an arrearage owed in child support by the Respondent.

The Court further finds that a bond may be set by the Court for the release of Respondent from custody. The Court further finds that Respondent is in default as to the issue of arrearage at least in the amount of the cash bond. The Court further finds that in cases of commitment, the Court often allows the early release of a Respondent upon the payment of a certain amount towards the arrearage.

The Court ORDERS, pursuant to the Texas Family Code Chapter 157, Subchapter C, that the proceeds of the cash bond or case release payment, up to the amount of the child support arrearage, be paid to the custodial parent through the:

Texas Child Support Disbursement Unit

P.O. Box 659791

San Antonio, TX 78265-9791

For distribution according to law. The Court ORDERS any amounts in excess of the child support arrearage paid to the Obligor.

The Court ORDERS that any payment made to the Sheriff's Department to procure the release of any obligor in a Title IV-D case shall be immediately transmitted to the District Clerk of Kendall County for distribution as above.

Signed the 4th day of August, 2026.
