

STANDING ORDER FOR THE 159TH AND 217TH DISTRICT COURTS ON PROBATIONER FILES MAINTAINED BY THE ANGELINA COUNTY COMMUNITY
SUPERVISION AND CORRECTIONS DEPARTMENT

The undersigned presiding Judges find that probationer case files maintained by the Angelina County Community Supervision and Corrections Department on behalf of the sentencing judge pursuant to 37 Tex. Admin. Code § 163.37 are judicial records under the control and authority of the sentencing court and are not authorized for disclosure or production via a subpoena in family, civil, or other non-criminal matters without prior written approval of the Judge of the sentencing court who ordered the supervision.

The undersigned presiding Judges shall only permit testimony in family, civil, or other non-criminal matters from a Community Supervision and Correction Department officer regarding matters that are of public record.

The Court ORDERS that an Angelina County Community Supervision and Correction Department officer shall not disclose or otherwise make available any probationer's case file for any family, civil, or non-criminal matter without the written consent of the Judge from the sentencing court.

The Court further ORDERS that an Angelina County Community Supervision and Correction Department officer shall not testify in family, civil, or other non-criminal matters to any matter about a probationer that is contained within a department file and that is not of public record, without the written authorization of the Judge of the sentencing court.

SO ORDERED: on the 19th day of October, 2026.

Presiding Judge, Todd Kassaw
159th District Court

Presiding Judge, Kristi C. Skillern
217th District Court

FILED
AT 2:19 PM

OCT 20 2026

MEAGAN MOORE, DISTRICT CLERK, ANGELINA COUNTY, TX
BY:  DEPUTY