

ORDER FOR DIRECT FILING FOR FAMILY DISTRICT COURTS

BRAZORIA COUNTY, TEXAS

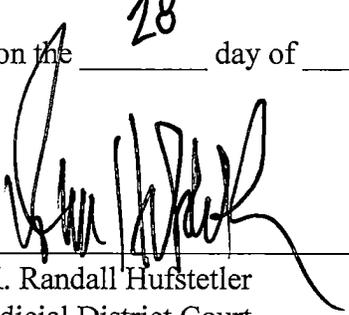

On the 28th day of April, 2021, BE IT REMEMBERED that the District Court Judges Trying Family Cases makes the following orders regarding direct file family cases:

All original applications for a protective order involving the same parties or the same children as a divorce or Suit Affecting the Parent Child Relationship case already pending in a Brazoria County District Court shall be filed in that court.

All new divorce cases involving the same parties as a protective order case already pending in a Brazoria County District Court and all new Suits Affecting the Parent Child Relationship involving the same parties or same children as a protective order case already pending in a Brazoria County District Court shall be filed in that court.

If a matter is mistakenly docketed in a court contrary to the terms of this order, the matter shall be promptly transferred by the Brazoria County District Clerk's Office to the appropriate District Court.

Signed on the 28 day of April, 2021.

Judge K. Randall Hufstetler
300th Judicial District Court
