

IN THE 106TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
DAWSON, GAINES, GARZA AND LYNN COUNTIES
STATE OF TEXAS

STANDING ORDER

The Court finds that several Community Supervision and Correction Department officers have at times been subpoenaed to testify along with a duces tecum for a probationer's file(s).

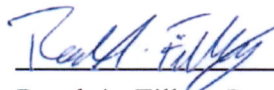

The Court also finds that such Community Supervision and Correction Department files are judicial records and are not subject to disclosure or production via a subpoena without prior written approval of the Judge of the court supervising any such probationer whose file has been subpoenaed.

The Court shall only permit testimony from a Community Supervision and Correction Department officer regarding matters that are of public record.

IT IS ORDERED that Community Supervision and Correction Department officers in the 106th Judicial District shall not disclose or otherwise make available any probationer's file to anyone without prior written consent from the Judge of the supervising court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Community Supervision and Correction Department officers in the 106th Judicial District shall not testify to any matter about a probationer that is contained within a department file that is not of public record without prior written authorization of the Judge of the supervising court.

SIGNED August 17, 2020.

Reed A. Filley, Presiding Judge
106th Judicial District Court

