

ORDER OF DISTRICT AND COUNTY COURT-AT-LAW JUDGES OF ANGELINA COUNTY
STATE OF TEXAS

2018 DEC 31 AM 11:31

On the 20th day of July, 2018, the District and statutory County Court-at-Law Judges of Angelina County, Texas, met after receipt of timely Notice of the Meeting and the sole Agenda Item, to wit: confirmation of a prior Order of the Board of Judges filed August 21, 2006 with the District Clerk of Angelina County, entitled "ORDER FILING AND ASSIGNMENT OF FAMILY LAW CASES".

After open discussion of the sole Agenda Item by each Judge, the Honorable Judge Bob Inselmann presented a Motion to approve and confirm the aforesaid Order of the Board of Judges filed August 21, 2016. The Motion was seconded by the Honorable Judge Paul E. White and voting in favor of the Motion were Judges Inselmann, White, and the Honorable Clyde Herrington. Voting against the Motion was the Honorable Joe Lee Register.

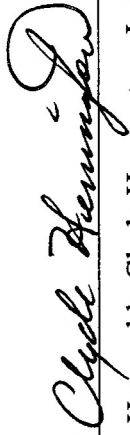

In accordance with the above-described majority vote of three (3) of the four (4) District and statutory County Court-at-Law Judges of Angelina County, and pursuant to Section 74.093, Texas Government Code, it is HEREBY ORDERED that the aforesaid Order of the Board of Judges filed August 21, 2006, is confirmed whereby Local Rule 4.3, pertaining to Family Law Cases, shall read as follows:

4.3.1 All family law cases filed on and after September 1, 2006 filed with the District Clerk shall be filed numerically in order of filing and assigned in rotation to County Court at Law #1 and County Court at Law#2. For purposes of this Order, "Family Law Cases" shall be suits involving divorce, annulment, suits affecting parent-child relationship, minority disability removal when there is not court of continuing jurisdiction, support when there is not court of continuing jurisdiction, paternity cases and all matters incident to or originating from such cases. All pending cases in the 159th District Court and 217th District Court will remain in those courts until conclusion of the issues pending before them at present. Any motions to modify, motions to enforce, or new actions in those cases will be reassigned to either County Court at Law #1 or County Court at Law #2 as directed by the District Clerk.

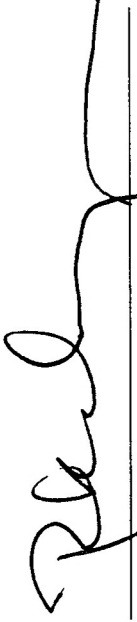

4.3.2 A Judge of any of the above four (4) enumerated courts of Angelina County may sign a Judgment or Order in any of the courts, regardless of whether the case is transferred. The Judgment, Order, or action is valid and binding as if the case were pending in the court of the judge who acts in the matter. (Section 74.093, Texas Government Code.) Each Judgment and Order shall be entered in the Minutes of the Court in which the case is pending.

4.3.3 All family law cases may be transferred between the above enumerated courts. However, a case may not be transferred without the consent of the Judge of the Court to which it is to be transferred except as directed by the Presiding Judge of the Second Administrative District.

Signed this 31st day of December, 2018.
